IMCA AND DoLS

This service is to provide safeguards for people who lack the capacity to make important decisions and who have no appropriate family or friends to consult.

IMHA

The Mental Health Act (2007) created this service as an additional safeguard for people who are detained under the mental health act.

CITIZEN ADVOCACY

Citizen advocates are trained volunteers who offer information and support to their partner (the client) over specified issues.

LEARNING DISABILITIES

KAG provides support to people with learning difficulties in a variety of ways, including the one-to-one support of a citizen advocate and professional advocacy.

MENTAL HEALTH

KAG provide support to people with mental health issues in a variety of ways, including the one-to-one support of a citizen advocate.

DRUGS & ALCOHOL—DAATS

KAG provides advocacy support for anyone who uses the Surrey Drug and Alcohol Treatment service.

SUPPORT IN CARE HOMES

This service provides representing the views and wishes of the residents concerning issues in the care home as well as other items.

APPROPRIATE ADULT

This service is for those who are deemed vulnerable and who do not have the support of a family member, social worker or friend. An appropriate adult provides support to the detainee at the police station during interviews.

NHS INPATIENT ADVOCACY

This service is for any patient on wards in hospitals, whether they are detained or voluntary, and the advocate visits each ward weekly.

IN PRIVATE HOSPITAL

This service offered is general inpatient advocacy to all the inpatients and outpatients of the hospital, to ensure that they have an independent voice.

CRISIS ADVOCACY

A crisis advocate represents an individual in an area which is complex and/or the matter is in a crisis.

SELF-ADVOCACY GROUPS

KAG and Surrey Disabled People's Partnership are supporting the Surrey self-advocacy Network to develop and give more disabled people a voice.
